

The New York Times

Art Listings

Published: January 27, 2006

'HUMANITARIANS NOT HEROES (FIVE-ALIVE)' This show presents offbeat promotional objects designed by various artists and issued by the exhibition's curator, the conceptualist Trong G. Nguyen, under the aegis of his own five-year-old organization called Humanitarians Not Heroes. They include "Sound Capsule," a CD not to be played until a certain date in the future; T-shirts printed with birth and death dates of unspecified people; and fortune cookies containing sayings of George W. Bush. Tenri Cultural Institute, 43A West 13th Street, Greenwich Village, (212) 645-2800, through Thursday.

(Johnson)